"THAT PATRIOTIC MELODY"

WORDS BY
C. NORTON PINKSOHN

MUSIC BY GERTRUDE BURROWS

PUBLISHERS
BURROWS-PINKSOHN
BOSTON, MASS

That Patriotic Melody.

Words by
C. NORTON PINKSOHN.

Music by GERTRUDE BURROWS.

Moderato.
Till ready
ritard.
Voice
Have you heard the lat-est tune played way o-ver there It's such a hyp-no-tiz-ing
When the band be-gins to play how they watch their step It thrills them thro' and thro' and mel-o-dy It can-not e-ver be com-pared You hear it all a-round the U. S. A.
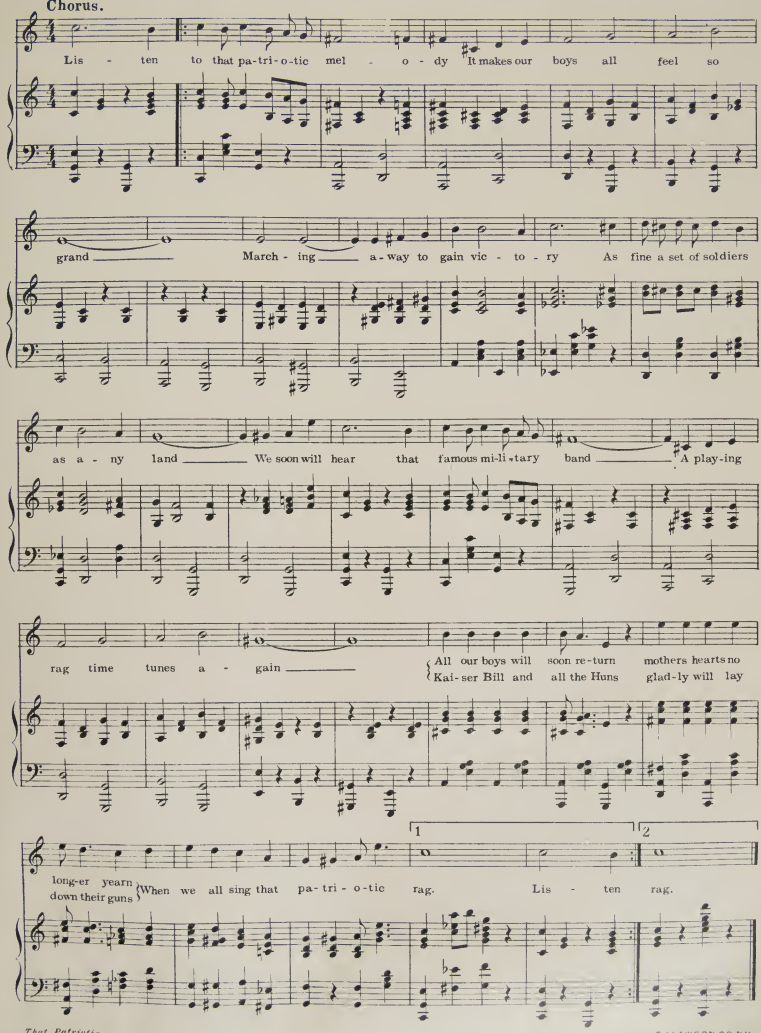
makes them sway For ev-ry one is full of pep You'll al-ways hear them hum-ming this same tune.
France and Eng-land soon And our boys will win the day when they hear this wonder-ful tune.
They can nev-er stop And it still rings in their ears when they're go-ing o-ver the top.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Burrows & Pinksohn, Boston, Mass.



Chorus.
Lis - ten to that pa-tri-o-tic mel - o - dy It makes our boys all feel so grand March - ing a-way to gain vic - to - ry As fine a set of soldiers as a - ny land We soon will hear that famous mi-li-tary band A play-ing rag time tunes a - gain
All our boys will soon re-turn mothers hearts no
Kai-ser Bill and all the Huns glad-ly will lay 1
2
long-er yearn down their guns
When we all sing that pa-tri - o-tic rag. Lis - ten rag.

F.J.LAWSON CO NY